General Livestock

The 2023 General Livestock Team competed in the 2023 Wilmington Livestock Judging Contest. Students had to judge each group of animals they were shown. The Animals at the contest included Market gilts, Market Goats, Breeding goats, Market lambs, Keep/cull Lambs, Market Beef, and Breeding Beef. Students had to rank each animal in each group from first to last and then answer questions about the group, After the judging we had to take a written test about general livestock knowledge.
